27 Names Begin With YAHU

Jehoahaz-- "An inscription of Tiglathpileser III records tribute being received from Iauhazi (mat) Ia-u-da-a 'Jehoahaz of Judah'." The Illustrated Bible Dictionary

Jehoiachin-- "In Babylon Jehoiachin was treated as a royal hostage. He is named (Yau-kin) in Bab. tablets, dated between 595 and 570 BC, as receiving rations at the court in company with his five sons." The Illustrated Bible Dictionary

Jehonathan-- "The name occurs in cuneiform records as Yahu-natunnu." Seventh-day Adventist BIBLE DICTIONARY

Jehu-- "Cuneiform Ia-u-a." The New Brown-Driver-Briggs-Gesenius Heb-Eng Lexicon In Arabic it's "Yahu" Hastings Dictionary of the Bible

All this evidence and more suggest that "Yahu" was used at the beginning of names, instead of the modern "Yeho" cover up by Massoretic vowel pointing. Thus the 27 following names are restored to they're original pronunciation.
